IV FORMAL LINGUISTICS MEETING IN MEXICO

Invited Speakers:

Violeta Vázquez Rojas Maldonado (El Colegio de México)

Andrew Hedding (University of Washington)

The National School of Language, Linguistics and Translation at the UNAM, Mexico is hosting the Fourth Formal Linguistics Meeting, which will take place in person at the ENALLT, Mexico City on September 4-6, 2023.

The Formal Linguistics Meeting in Mexico (ELF) aims to bring together researchers and graduate students working under formal approaches to the study of language to promote the discussion of ideas on language phenomena and their theoretical implications. We invite submissions of abstracts for presentations that have as a theoretical basis any formal linguistic approach (Minimalism, Optimality Theory, Formal Semantics, Distributed Morphology, HPSG, among others) to the analysis of linguistic phenomena at different grammatical levels (syntax, semantics, pragmatics, morphology, phonology, and interface studies).

Abstract submission:

We invite abstracts for 20 minutes oral presentations, plus 10 minutes for discussion and questions. All abstracts must meet the following guidelines:

- Abstracts must be submitted in Spanish or English as a PDF file to the conference's e-mail address elfmex20@gmail.com
- Abstracts must be anonymous and include an identifiable title.

- Abstracts must be at most two pages long, including purpose of the presentation, data, main results, and references, on letter-size or A4 paper with 1-inch margins on all sides, Times New Roman, font size 12 pt, single-spaced.
- Submissions are limited to one individual and one joint abstract per author, or two joint abstracts per author.
- Abstracts that do not comply with these requirements will not be reviewed.

Important dates:

- New deadline for abstract submission: May 2, 2023
- Notification of acceptance: June 10, 2023
- Meeting: September 4-6, 2023
